

Exposure Draft

Course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board

Tax Practitioners Board Exposure Draft

The Board has released this draft information sheet as an exposure draft and invites comments and submissions in relation to the information contained in it within 60 days. The closing date for submissions is 18 June 2010 after which time the Board will consider any submissions made and will then publish a final information sheet.

Any written submissions in relation to this exposure draft should be made by the closing date to the Secretary of the Tax Practitioners Board via email at tpbwebsite@ato.gov.au or by mail to:

Tax Practitioners Board
PO Box 9825
PENRITH NSW 2740

DISCLAIMER

Please note that this document is in draft form, and when finalised, will be intended as information only. While it seeks to provide practical assistance and explanation, it does not exhaust, prescribe or limit the scope of the Board's powers provided in the Tax Agent Services Act 2009.

Additionally, please note that the principles, explanations and examples in this paper do not constitute legal advice. They are also at a preliminary stage only. The Tax Practitioners Board's conclusions and views may change as a result of the comments the Board receives or as other circumstances change.

Document History

This paper was issued on 14 April 2010 and is based on the Tax Agent Services Act 2009, the Tax Agent Services Regulations 2009 and the Tax Agent Services (Transitional Provisions and Consequential Amendments) Act 2009 as at 1 March 2010.

INFORMATION SHEET

Information regarding 'a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board'

This draft information sheet sets out the preliminary views of the Tax Practitioners Board (Board) in relation to the meaning of 'a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board' for the purpose of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Tax Agent Services Regulations 2009 (Regulations).

In particular, this draft information sheet outlines the Board's interim approach regarding the requirements for 'a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board'.

The purpose of this information is to assist relevant institutions, professional associations, potential registrants and the wider community to understand the factors that provide the basis for the Board's interim approach to the educational eligibility requirements for registration as a BAS agent.

All preliminary views expressed in this draft information sheet are subject to ongoing consultation by the Board with relevant stakeholders. The Board intends to adopt these preliminary views until they are finalised.

The Board will publish a separate information sheet outlining its general approach regarding the approval of courses for the purpose of Schedule 2 to the Regulations.

Course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles – Interim approach

1. Applicants seeking registration as a BAS agent under the Tax Agent Services Act 2009 are required, under the Regulations, to have successfully completed a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board.
2. Applicants are also required to have been awarded at least a Certificate IV Financial Services (Bookkeeping) or a Certificate IV Financial Services (Accounting) from a registered training organisation or an equivalent institution.
3. The Board recognises that the Certificate IV Financial Services (Bookkeeping) and Certificate IV Financial Services (Accounting) courses currently include a BAS unit.
4. The Board has held a number of consultations with various stakeholders regarding the appropriate requirements for a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board.
5. At this time, the Board is of the preliminary view that, as an interim measure, until 29 February 2012, the BAS unit "FNSBKPG404A Carry out Business Activity Statements and Instalment Activity Statements" in the Certificate IV Financial Services (Bookkeeping) and Certificate IV Financial Services (Accounting) courses is an approved course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles.

INFORMATION SHEET

6. The interim measure is for a transitional period of two years commencing on 1 March 2010. At the end of the transitional period, the Board expects to have a more comprehensive set of requirements which will underlie the Board's longer term approach in relation to a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board.
7. The Board is of the preliminary view that applicants who gain registration during the transitional period (that is, between 1 March 2010 and 29 February 2012) will need to complete any additional courses that may be necessary to satisfy the longer term requirements in relation to a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board.
8. The Board is engaged in ongoing consultation with relevant stakeholders regarding its longer term approach in relation to a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board. The Board will provide further information as it becomes available.

Will the Board accept other courses as an approved course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles?

9. Yes, the Board may accept other courses as an approved course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles for the purpose of Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulations.
10. The information above outlines the Board's interim approach regarding the requirements for 'a course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles that is approved by the Board'. This information does not preclude other courses from meeting the requirements for an approved course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles.
11. If you have successfully completed another course which you believe should be an approved course in basic GST/BAS taxation principles, a submission should be included with your application for registration, which the Board will consider on its merits.